

Number of Registered Refugees (RR) in Camps

- Registered Refugees in camps
- Registered Refugees outside camps
- Registered Refugees inside camps

- Destroyed Camp
- Unofficial Camp

Figures are based on 2013 UNWRA data.

In May 2007, a three-month conflict between a militant group and the Lebanese armed forces destroyed Nahr Al-Bared camp, forcing its over 27,000 inhabitants to abandon their homes. The camp is currently reconstructed by UNRWA. As of January 2014, 1,321 families (5,857 residents) have returned to new apartments and 284 shops have been provided for traders. The remaining residents continue to live in temporary accommodation as well as the nearby Beddawi camp.
